Cobham Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] COBHAM, VA., August 14.—The society around Cobham seems to have caught the August mood and become quite gay and festive in giving dances, teas and swimming-pool parties during the past ten days, much to the enjoyment of the many pleasant strangers, who have sought relief from the intense heat of the cities by coming to the country, as well as to those who live in the vicinity.
Among the many delightful social events of the week just past was a tea given at "Mansfield," the home of William Mann, presided over this summer by Mrs. Oscar Cranz in the absence of her mother, who is abroad. The enjoyment of the occasion was much enhanced by the music rendered by Miss Polly Robins, of Richmond, who warmed all hearers with her delightful voice.
The large dance given by a club of young ladies of Cobham and Clifton has already been described for this paper. It was so much of a success in every way that it will be followed by a similar entertainment in the near future.
The absentees from the neighborhood are slowly returning. Mrs. Mary A. Houghton has reached New York, on their return from Europe, but will spend a month at the seashore before coming to "Brook-wood."
Mrs. Sholto Douglas will probably reach home on Saturday, and will be warmly greeted by her many friends, who will welcome her on her leaving the Sarah Lath Hospital, where she has been ill for a month or more.
"Victories New."
Mrs. Allen and her "victories new" at the horse show at Front Royal.
Miss Mary E. Bell is also visiting at Cobham.
Miss Gretchen Notting, of Richmond, has been stopping with Mrs. Otto Notting, at Cobham during the past few weeks. Rev.
Mr. Claiborne officiating.
A large number of the people of the neighborhood have attended the meetings held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Coghill, at Milford.
There are quite a large number of boarders in the various houses around Cobham for the hot months, and all have been much pleased in having services at Grav-att's during the past few weeks. Rev.
Mr. Claiborne officiating.
